Annyce,
It's been fun being in some of your classes this year. Hope you have a grand summer.

Annex, I've enjoyed the basket-going to the games this year with you. Have fun this summer and I'll see you around,
Gwen Stinson
Edward

you are a wonderful girl. May God bless you and have the best of luck in your short life. Be good and see you next year Beraldine

Best of luck to a swell gal.
Remember the good times in Typing.

Best of luck to you all

Don Stofford

Connie, you are one of the nicest girls I know.
I hope you and your intramural sports.
will always be around.

Annyce,

This year has really been fun, hasn't it? I will never forget all the fun we had in geometry, history, and French. It seems as if each year gets better and better but also harder and harder. I hope we enjoy next year even more if that's possible. Remember all the fun we had eating at lunch. Best of luck always to a girl I'm sure will succeed. You really deserve the very best!!

Luck always,

Gibby

Annyce enjoyed with
you. history everything being in a sweet future to a
you. Best of love ya, in the future. Love ya, Elaine

Well this is it.
This ends (or begins) now.
New about holding down the old school for me next year. Keep Martha in step and make her take journalism.
Best wishes. Danny

Best of luck to a real well girl. I have really enjoyed being in English with you. We can always be good basketball players. Don't forget all of those games.

Love ya!

Hail to Alma Mater, our school, our life, Hail to our dear Boyden, through storm and strife Guiding as we shine on high, Striving 'til we do or die Singing as we march ever onward, ever high.

To succeed as citizens, this is our creed
To succeed as citizens, this will be our deed Forward, upward, shine on high, leading, heading, 'til we die Singing as we march ever onward, ever high.

Now a part of the school after our first bewildered year . . . the never-to-be forgotten days in biology classes with frogs and insects . . . hours spent deciding on a career and doing research for our vocational term papers . . . more fun and competition in the magazine drive . . . our contributions to the junior varsity teams . . . a few representatives on the varsity teams . . . meetings at the drugstore after school for long "gab" sessions . . . fun masquerading as Romans at the Latin Banquet . . . some of us serving as waitresses and hatcheck boys at the Junior-Senior . . . then another step up.

THE YELLOW JACKET

1. Each issue of the "Yellow Jacket" begins in the classroom, where over-all planning takes place.
2. After planning, writing is the next step in publishing the paper. Rachel Allen, publicity chairman, types a story for Martha Sink, girls' sports editor.
3. The five editors, Josephine Gardner, editorial editor; Boyd Hight, managing editor; Mildred Erwin, editor-in-chief; Ann Peeler, news editor; and Carol Harrison, feature editor, then read the material to choose the stories to be published.
4. Making the lay-out of a page are Ann Miller and Dot Honeycutt, assistant circulation managers; Jon Pittman, social editor; Naomi Dixon, assistant news editor; and Mory Prevette, assistant editorial editor.
5. Co-art editors, Peggy McLarty and Suzanne Ramsey, add humor to the paper with their lively cartoons.

JACKET STAFF

6. Selling those vital ads is the responsibility of Jim Cooper, advertising manager, and Charlie Roakes, assistant. Here they plan a picture ad with Mr. Ben W. Shapiro, of Guyes.
7. Nancy Morris, business manager, and Miss Ida Gordner, advisor, total the receipts from the last paper.
8. Danny Hogue, sports editor, interviews Mr. Derwood Huneycutt for a sports scoop.
9. Wayne Shadrick, assistant sports editor; Fran Wagoner, exchange editor; and Julie Hudson, assistant feature editor; turn over a "dummy" to Mr. Smith at the printers.
10. Working on circulation of another great "Yellow Jacket" are Marilyn Wiles, assistant circulation manager; Betsy Freeman, circulation manager; and Julia Polyak, alumni editor.

A TRIBUTE FINE AND TRUE

The curtain goes down on a well done ploy,
And we owe it all to you.
With tireless effort and matchless skill,
You work the whole day through.

Your service to the Boydenites
Is just what we call "tops".
You tolerate the students' ways,
From loudest slong to "bops"

With interest and enthusiasm,
You hear us out in class.
With patience and endurance,
You try to help us pass.

So in this poem we've tried to pay,
A tribute fine and true,
By giving thanks to you, Miss Moore,
For all the things you do.

INTERCLUB Y-TEEN COUNCIL

The Interclub Y-Teen Council is made up of representatives from the four Y-Teen clubs. These representatives are the four main officers of the council. They meet as an executive committee to plan projects in which the four groups can work together.

The Y-Teens, an organization carried on under the supervision of the YWCA, is a club of fellowship and service. Its symbol is a blue triangle, the sides of which stand for body, mind, and spirit—all three of which the girls try to develop to the fullest extent.

WINNER OF ANGIER B.
DUKE SCHOLARSHIP

as you are or when we're together.
It is wonderful. I couldn't ask for any more loyal and understanding friend than you.

You see a lot of us, remember all the times I have written and described the good times we've had. I forgot the times we've had with subway and you will be the first to remember them.

It was a soft all the time with you around you will be in a better out on the road to God's ways it is easier to forget the past.

It is hard to say what I can do, the only good we can do is change the world a little.
It is a very good road
but I need your some help.
I am not used to say so few words, so remember this is not the time to say so but you are the best person at say so.

It is well roundy times.

Here another year has evaporated and I'm puzzling over something to write again so I'll start off with my memories, okay?
I sure hope you will remember all of the fun we have had this year: Cleveland ball games, football and basketball; those Saturdays and Sundays in Hanover; OCTOBER 28th, those slumber(?) parties; homecoming; Jr.-Sr. night; trips with G.I.'s; geometry (plus, period) and French classes; Easter Sunday and Monday (all the back roads of Hanover and surrounding counties); those early morning walks again, ones this year instead of going by 2nd it was in front hall and by 11th; always, by all means, remember those straight lines made and all the honor societies I topped into.

Now for the biggest remember (that's not spelled right, I think) of all. The our trip to the hospital, at the end of the first floor hall.

"Here we into the wild blue yonder."
I'm in the Air Force.

You are really a very, very, very, very, sweet girl (that's one way to take up space) and I have enjoyed every minute of it, even when I got mad.

I hope we have a good time this weekend. I know we will. Won't we?
P.S.

Tell Ed hello and love ya-go easy on him. Martha Ha! Ha!

Truly,

Howell... I'd come very here memories this year I think it was on the very last yet. We've seen, seen times and will remember each and every one. For instance - the night I came sing with Don with on stage we for all game and basketball games a all the ways we were ensued over + it on time a mother; the times we with Weston and Richard; the way we left and sleep on been free until most all of them; that crazy mess when I run shanghaied Martha and Hendrix and we went with Berry in the middle way we at a guaranteed
"it, and this; and last but not time we had the right of the road we really had a taste of most every we? something else will delight you come "freekays". Even to you my dear truly you a dear meet you as you ersonality makes you used my like the on keeping my finger crossed it will get your chance to talk see it. Don't you up funny things a nappy home in us.

we having enjoyed running round with you, myself in I did this year in an "I" thing and of you I leading the summer. The best of us there's in anything you undertake.

"Luff"
I am

Anne,

I have certainly enjoyed knowing you these 3 years - having you in S. A. A. the basketball team, going on all those Play Days. I'll sure miss you all next year - Best of luck and success always - to a very sweet girl.

a friend,

Betty Lowder
